

The Southeast Asia Council of the Association for Asian Studies invites you to...

Networks, Memories, Encounters: A Panel in Honour of Jeff Hadler (1968–2017)

Jeffrey Hadler, Associate Professor of South & Southeast Asian Studies at UC Berkeley, historian of Indonesia and Southeast Asia, and longtime AAS member who served on the organization's Southeast Asia Council sadly passed away in 2017. The panel brings together scholars of different generations and perspectives to assess and acknowledge Jeff's many contributions to the fields of Indonesian and Southeast Asian Studies as scholar, mentor and colleague.

Chair: Nancy Peluso

Papers by: Sanne Ravensbergen, Brandon Williams, Kankan Xie

Discussant: Sylvia Tiwon

Organized by Ronit Ricci and Eric Tagliacozzo

Thursday, March 25, 2021
12:00–1:30 PM (EDT)***

Access available to registered AAS participants (see conference program for link)

Followed by an informal gathering on Zoom to remember Jeff, 1:40–2:40pm (US Eastern Daylight Time), hosted by SEAC Chair Richard Fox. Open to all.

Zoom link for informal gathering: <https://uvic.zoom.us/j/84743034802>

PLEASE JOIN US!